

CONFERENCE TO SETTLE DISPUTE

One Provided For in Case Trustees Decline to Carry Out Requests.

CONFERENCE TAKES ACTION

Adopts Cannon Resolution That Randolph-Macon Is Property of Church.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, November 12.—Without debate or division, and with only immaterial changes in verbiage, the Rev. James Cannon's resolution in reference to the Randolph-Macon controversy, in which it was reaffirmed that, morally and legally, the Randolph-Macon College is the property of the Virginia M. E. Conference, calling on the trustees to join the conference in acknowledging these rights, and, further, with them in securing the necessary changes in the charter of the institution, was adopted this morning at the conference session. The resolution further provides for a commission to settle the dispute, in the event that the trustees of Randolph-Macon College decline to carry out the requests of the conference, both parties to bind themselves to abide their decision.

Unit for Adoption.
When the matter was reached this morning at 10 o'clock it was quickly recognized that the conference was a unit for the adoption of the report of the committee headed by Rev. Mr. Cannon, and when Rev. J. B. Winn secured the privilege of withdrawing his resolution, it was evidenced that there would be no fight on the floor over the matter. The changes made in the resolution were strictly of the verbiage, and in no way change its effect.

These were agreed to by Mr. Cannon for the committee. It was plain that the matter had been decided previous to the meeting, and that this settlement was in the nature of an agreement in order to close out any debate.

Winn Withdraws Resolution.
When the matter was reached at 12 A. M., Rev. Dr. H. E. Johnson moved that the expected debate be limited to 5 P. M., an afternoon session being held, necessary, to conclude it, which a vote should be taken. The motion was lost. Rev. Mr. Winn then asked to be allowed to withdraw his resolution, and this was granted. On motion of Rev. Richard Ferguson it was decided to consider the resolution by sections, item by item. He also moved that debate speech be limited to five minutes, but this was lost. Rev. James Cannon, Jr., here explained the paper at length.

Resolution No. 1 was read and adopted without a dissenting voice; resolution No. 2 passed with one or two dissenting votes; resolution No. 3, no dissent; resolution No. 4 met with slight opposition.

Resolution No. 5 was reached. Dr. Johnson moved that the words "a vacancy occur" be substituted for "in the event that any member of said committee shall resign," and this was agreed to.

Dr. Johnson moved that the committee provided for in this section be appointed by the bishop and not by the conference.

In speaking to his motion, Dr. Johnson insisted that to appoint the committee by ballot was too cumbersome a method.

Thomas Whitehead, a lay delegate to this conference, spoke very warmly in opposition to the appointment of the committee by the bishop, saying that "the laymen, the wheels of the college," and that it is their duty to elect the committee, and we want to vote on the question of who this committee shall be."

Frank Talbot, a layman of Danville, spoke against the latter's motion.

Dr. Johnson's motion was then laid on the table by vote of the conference.

Rev. Dr. Cannon then took the floor and spoke to the section under consideration (Resolution No. 5), especially as to the scope of the powers of the committee.

In reply to a question propounded by Rev. J. B. Winn, Dr. D. Rev. Dr. Cannon said that he does not understand that this section empowered the committee to bring a suit in court.

Rev. Dr. Winn then insisted that the section should be amended to cover Dr. Cannon's reply to his (Winn's) question.

Layman Parker, from Franklin, Southampton county, suggested that the insertion after the word "action" of the words "and litigation" would clear the matter up.

This was voted down. Rev. W. A. Christian and J. E. DeShazo making the point that the section is sufficiently explicit, Mr. Christian saying that the section doesn't empower the committee to kill the college trustees, but there is no danger that the committee will kill the trustees; that there isn't the least danger of the committee taking the responsibility, and incurring the expense of beginning a law suit.

Kidney Ailment

There is Hope

I want every person who suffers with any form of kidney ailment, no matter how many remedies they have tried, to matter how many doctors they have consulted, no matter how serious the case, to give Munson's Kidney remedy a trial. You will be astonished to see how quickly it relieves all pains in the back, loins, or groin, caused by kidney trouble. You will be surprised to see how quickly it reduces the swelling in the feet and legs, also puffiness under the eyes, after taking a few doses of this remedy. You will be delighted to see the color returning to your cheeks and feel the thrill of vigor and good cheer. If your urine is thick or milky, if it is pale and foamy, if it contains sediments or brickdust, if it is either colored or has an offensive smell, if you urinate frequently, you should persist in taking this remedy until all symptoms disappear. This remedy has cured more serious kidney ailments than all the kidney medicines that have been compounded. Prof. J. Munson believes that the terrible death rate from Bright's Disease and Diabetes is unnecessary, and will be greatly reduced by this remedy.

Go at once to your druggist and purchase a bottle of Munson's Kidney remedy. It will fail to give satisfaction, but I will refund your money—Munson.

For sale by all druggists. Price 25c.

without getting the authority of the conference, to do so.

Resolutions No. 5 and No. 6 were unanimously adopted; then the preamble was adopted, and finally the preamble and resolutions adopted as a whole, ending the matter for the present.

Morning Session.
The morning session began at 9:30 and lasted until 2 P. M. Rev. Dr. H. E. Johnson, of Suffolk, conducting the devotional exercises. He read St. Paul's great passage on "Love" as the lesson of the morning, and in his prayer referred to the Randolph-Macon matter, urging that members of the conference stand by their convictions, but not say anything that would grieve the spirit of God.

Referring to the case of Dr. LaFayette, who was exonerated of charges, he asked if it was the duty of a presiding elder to report such matters to the conference when the conference showed that a trial was unnecessary. Bishop Wilson replied in the affirmative.

Rev. Dr. W. J. Young, of the committee on the Richmond and Baltimore Christian Advocate, submitted his report, endorsing that paper, and urging for it liberal patronage and support. The report was referred to the committee on publishing interests. Dr. Young also announced that the agent of the paper, Rev. J. W. Eure, would return to the regular conference at this meeting.

Candidates Pass.
Wyatt A. Smart, Alvin K. Lambden, James W. Bouldin, Richard V. Owen, Charles E. Johnson, John C. Robertson, John S. Macey and James E. Daniel passed in character and on examination, and were admitted in the class of the second year.

James T. Moore, J. R. Laughton, P. M. Hank, John W. Shackford and J. K. Walker, Jr., passed in character and examination, and were admitted in the class of the third year.

Frank W. Wells, John W. Eure, LeRoy W. Guyer and B. T. Candier passed in character and on examination, and were admitted in the class of the third year.

Clement C. Archer, of the Salisbury district, and L. A. Smith, of the Eastern Shore district, were elected to local deacons' orders.

John R. McConara, of the Norfolk district, was elected to local elders' orders.

T. G. Crutchfield, of the Charlottesville district, was taken from the class of the first year and elected to deacons' orders.

Rev. M. B. Porter, agent of the American Bible Society, was introduced to the conference and made an address on the work of that society, giving much interesting data in reference to the circulation of the Bible among the destitute in various sections of the South, which amounted annually to $30,000. During the months of July, August and September 6,575 families had been furnished with the Word of God, and 40 per cent. of these were among the natives and 60 per cent. among the foreign population.

Layman DeLoach, of Danville, announced to the conference that the wife of Rev. W. H. Atwell, presiding elder of the Danville district, was dying at her home in that city, and the conference was led in prayer by Rev. Dr. W. J. Young for her husband and family.

On motion of Dr. Cannon, a telegram expressing the sympathy of the conference was sent to Mr. Atwell.

Evening Meeting.
To-night's meeting of the conference was a public gathering, and the auspices of the laymen's movement, and the Epworth Church was crowded to its utmost capacity, all anxious to hear the missionary address of Bishop A. W. Wilson. Dr. W. R. Leland, secretary of the foreign board also spoke.

Bishop Wilson had for his subject "The Church and Its Mission to the World." His main points were that there are 100,000,000 souls in heathen darkness; that the church is burdened with the duty of sending them the gospel of Christ, and that the laymen have their part of the burden to bear in the financial end.

Had Narrow Escape.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
AMHERST, Va., November 12.—Boon Cash, who lives near Lowesville, in this county, John Willis, his colored driver, and his three horses, had a narrow escape from death by a Southern freight train at a crossing just beyond this place last night. As it was, one horse was killed and the wagon was considerably damaged. Mr. Cash was returning from Lynchburg. Coming down Pine Hill, his team became frightened by an approaching freight train. They ran off, and, reaching the crossing before the train had entirely passed over it, turned down the track. The saddle horse and wagon were thrown against the moving train. The horse was killed and the wagon caught between the moving train and a telegraph pole. The three horses broke from the wagon when it caught fire, and ran over a precipice and into the creek below.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ASHLAND, Va., November 12.—Hon. Rosewell Page, of Hanover, and brother of Thomas Nelson Page, the Southern author, was a visitor at Randolph-Macon College yesterday. He addressed the students at the morning chapel service, and was received by them with much pleasure.

LESLIE M. SHAW GIVES EVIDENCE

Testifies as to Excellent Reputation of Miss Irvine, Plaintiff in Gregory Case.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, Va., November 12.—The last witness put on by the Commonwealth this morning in the case of Dr. Gregory was ex-Secretary Leslie M. Shaw, who testified that he had known Miss Irvine for a number of years while she was an instructor at Cornell College; that her reputation for truth, veracity and chastity was good, and that his daughter was one of her friends.

The defense announced that it had no intention of questioning the veracity or the chastity of Miss Irvine, but claimed that she was laboring under a delusion as the result of the anaesthetic.

The first witness of the prosecution, Dr. W. P. McGuire, of Winchester, was asked a hypothetical question in regard to what occurred in the office, and stated that in his opinion it was the result of the anaesthetic.

Negro Vested.
Dr. Hugh M. Taylor, of Richmond, testified to the same effect. Lee Martin, Dr. Gregory's negro assistant, was the next witness. He corroborated Dr. Martin's story, but was considerably worried by the cross-examination conducted by Mr. Perkins. He made a statement that while he was at Dr. Gregory's home at breakfast next morning he did not tell him anything about it, being at the office at the time, and it was three days before he mentioned it and that was to his lawyers.

The defense then made an effort to show that parties in the office during the time Miss Irvine was in the operating room. R. A. Bondurant, a carpenter, testified that Miss Irvine was in the chair when he was in the reception room, and she passed by him going out and did not seem to notice him. William Johnson testified that he was in the room with the negro at 12:15, and stayed some time, and that a lady was in the dental chair, and Dr. Harrison testified that Lee Martin was there when he came back about 1:30.

The defense is preparing to discount the negro's story by calling in other negroes. The defense will devote most of to-morrow to medical evidence.

WILL SEEK INJUNCTION.

Citizens of Spotsylvania Do Not Want Bond Election Held.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., November 12.—The meeting of citizens held at Spotsylvania Courthouse yesterday to consider the question of improving the highways in the county and to discuss matters concerning the election to be held next week for bonding the county for the improvement of roads in two of the districts of the county, resulted after much discussion, in the adoption of a resolution to apply for an injunction to enjoin the election called for November 15th, and appointed a committee to employ an attorney to carry out that idea. The injunction suit will be applied for in the name of some of the tax-payers of Courthouse District against the Board of Supervisors of the county, which called on Judge J. E. Mason, of the Circuit Court, to order the election fixed for next Tuesday.

A school improvement league has been formed in Stafford county, with the following officers: President, Miss Virginia Ashby; Vice-President, E. H. Randall; Secretary, Miss Lou Arrington; Treasurer, J. C. Snelling.

PHARMACIST.

Tells Facts About Caffeine in Coffee.

"About twelve years ago I stopped coffee," writes a Colo. man, "and began Postum. As a result, instead of being a confirmed dyspeptic, as I was for many years, I now enjoy good health and fine digestion."

"I formerly weighed 115 lbs., now 140. My waist measure was 29, now 38 inches. Not only this, but I enjoy Postum and my meals, while for years eating was an annoyance and often a torture."

"Like an old whiskey toper, I always thought I had to have my coffee and then always felt its ill effects in my stomach and on my nerves."

"Now I have so completely lost my taste for coffee that recently, when a cup was given me by mistake and I tasted it, I found it nauseated me. On the other hand, I not only like the healthful effect of Postum, but the taste is peculiarly agreeable to me."

"I have tried other coffee drinks, but always come back to Postum. Realizing as I do the evil effects from the poisonous alkaloid in coffee, and being a Postum pioneer, I am a very successful missionary."

"One man, a school superintendent, from my recommendation, has had quite as happy an experience with Postum as I have had. My wife has also found great benefit from Postum, as coffee was the only thing which disagreed with her stomach and table."

"Being a graduate in pharmacy, I know the alkaloid—Caffeine—in coffee is a poisonous drug. As there is no drug in Postum I naturally drink it and recommend it to others." "There's a reason."

MAY MAKE OAKLAND FAMOUS

(From the Oakland Herald.)

In an unpretentious place away out on San Pablo Avenue, not far from Sixth Street, there is a sign of activity that is hardly in keeping with its pastoral surroundings. Boxes have been shipped from India to London, and every important city in the United States is in touch with this little community, and it is possible—even probable—that it will make Oakland familiar to all the world.

On Commonwealth Avenue, in Boston, there is a silent statue of William Lloyd Garrison. The money that paid for it was contributed by the sons of the men who dragged the living men at the rope's end through the streets.

After a year or so the statue was laid to rest in a local cemetery, unadorned and unsung, a lowly personage, whose memory will also be honored by future generations, for there is no doubt that this little community discovered a specific for Bright's Disease and Diabetes. The Herald is in possession of facts that enable it to state this authoritatively. It is probable that the people of this city alone owe the fact that they are living to the late John J. Fulton, and however prejudiced one may be as to the curability of these diseases, yet a doctor with an open mind can be convinced in an afternoon.

Experiences fresh from the hearts of the people are obtainable to so great a number that inquiry is soon satisfied.

Let New and Old Oaklanders decline to permit the use of his name, recovered from diabetes under circumstances that are hard to believe.

A local business man tells us of a friend of his, a well-known physician, who was struck with Bright's Disease, and was so satisfied of his incurability that he would not hear about the treatment. A climax was reached, and he decided to trick him into the use of it. His recovery resulted.

Another physician, who is a particular friend of the proprietor of the San Pablo Avenue, was advised by the latter to put himself on the treatment. Although his case was in the serious stages, yet he, too, was so imbued with the incurability of the disease that he would not consider it. Later, at a critical moment, he changed his mind. The case yielded, and he has returned to his practice.

Another case is vouched for by a number of well-known people. A lady living in an interior town, but who is known here, was slowly dying of Bright's Disease. The sudden departure of her physician for the East was means of saving her life. She was told the fact that the new physician called into the case changed the treatment to the new specific. The amazement of the family physician on finding his patient well instead of dead on his return can be imagined.

The writer can give the name of a former Southern Pacific physician who was cured of Bright's Disease by the same treatment, under circumstances similar to those in one of the cases above, he, too, having to be deceived in taking the treatment.

Let New and Old Oaklanders decline to permit the use of his name, recovered from diabetes under circumstances that are hard to believe.

Recoveries in all walks of life are so numerous that they are simply cumulative.

And the pity of it is that the ethics of the medical profession are such as to prevent the early exposure and declaration of this beneficent discovery.

The press admits the facts. In view of the census showing that out of every 100 deaths from kidney trouble 92 of them had Bright's Disease, how can any sane people who have any kind of kidney trouble afford to take anything but Fulton's Renal Compound, the only known specific for Bright's Disease? Price, $1.00. For Diabetes, Fulton's Diabetic Compound, $1.50. Send for pamphlet to John J. Fulton Co., 1910 San Pablo Avenue, Oakland.

Citizens say that it is the most widespread revival that Culpeper has known in twenty-eight years. It is a subject of much comment that so many men have professed conversion.

Culpeper is not considered an easy field for evangelists, for Mr. Wiley, by his forceful and stirring sermons has awakened a deep interest among people of all walks of life. There has been no great excitement, but in every service except the first two many people have been at the altar.

Six or seven of the ministers of the community are taking part, and the sympathy of the various denominations is being manifested in practical ways. Great crowds have been attending. The church has not been able to accommodate all who wish to hear Mr. Wiley, and on Sunday night an overflow meeting was held at the Baptist Church, in charge of Rev. S. L. Dumville, of Woodville, Va.

BARN IS BURNED.

Fire at Oldtown Does Damage to Extent of $1,600.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LESTER MANOR, Va., November 12.—A large barn and stable building at Oldtown, the property of C. L. Yancey, near this place, was burned at 3 o'clock this evening. The loss is estimated at about $1,500, partially covered by insurance. Mr. Yancey was at the time husking corn with a spreader. He was using a gasoline engine. The man feeding the machine first discovered the fire, which started in the rear of the building and spread so rapidly that it was impossible to save the machine. The building, which was an immense structure, burned down in about twenty minutes. By heroic efforts other nearby buildings were saved from total destruction, one having half of the roof burned off.

A HEROIC RESCUE.

Conductor Clings to Train and Carries Unconscious Woman.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CEDAR RAPIDS, Va., November 12.—Freight Conductor A. J. Frances, of the Norfolk and Western Railway, effected a heroic rescue at Shenandoah Junction. A young lady was hurrying to catch her train on the main line, when she found her way blocked by a sudden lurch. She would have been crushed to death had not Captain Frances sprung to the rescue and caught her. The young lady fainted, and throughout the mile run that the train accomplished before stopping she clung to the car, holding the unconscious girl.

STUDENTS COMING TO BOOST TEAM

William and Mary Confident of Victory in Saturday's Contest Here.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WILLIAMSBURG, Va., November 12.—Great preparations are being made by the William and Mary football squad for the championship game with Randolph-Macon in Richmond Saturday afternoon. In the games played heretofore this season, the William and Mary eleven has made a particularly strong showing, owing to the fact that the squad has been composed almost entirely of men who knew nothing of the game.

Saturday's game should prove a particularly interesting one, as it will decide whether William and Mary is to remain in the race for the championship of the eastern division of the Intercollegiate Athletic Association of Virginia.

So far William and Mary has lost one championship game to Hampden-Sydney. Also one game, not championship, has been lost to Randolph-Macon. This would seem to imply that Randolph-Macon has the stronger team. In the Petersburg game, in which William and Mary was defeated, the team was in a crippled condition, being minus both ends and quarter back, and losing its full back early in the game. Since then the team has been greatly strengthened.

Great enthusiasm prevails among the students, a large number of whom will accompany the team to Richmond.
